

IX TAUCHO ETHNOGRAPHIC DAYS : “The family in a rural setting”

(Unless otherwise stated, all tours and events will be taking place in Spanish)

Saturday June 17th

10am: Guided tour: The old hamlets and their last inhabitants. Taucho’s residents will be acting as guides and will take you on a tour of the old homesteads uncovering the secrets they hide...Itinerary: Lomo los Grillos, Aponte, Teresme, El Aserradero, Los Llanos, Los Picos, LaQuinta, Taucho.

Sunday June 18th

11am: ETHNOGRAPHIC RECREATIONAL EVENT ON THE STREETS OF TAUCHO (The family in a rural setting), with the involvement of the residents of Taucho and the Imoque Cultural Association.

- Exhibitions

“La Familia en el ámbito rural” (The family in a rural setting), photographs from the Adeje Archives

“ELLAS” the main players in the history of a town. A journey through the 20th Century through photographs, with women as witnesses of change: Adeje department of equality politics.

- Display and sale of crafts and produce of the land
- Showing of a documentary by the Imoque Association
- Working as a family. Sowing potato seeds using oxen teams
- Family stories through photographs
- A walk by Taucho’s schools
- Farm animal fair
- Sheep shearing and milking display
- Slaughtering the pig, a family affair
- Dance in Tío Víctor’s cantina – and sing along with Cantina de Manito
- Performance by the El Mesturao group (TBC)

Tuesday June 20th & Wednesday June 21st

- 5pm : Traditional Taucho bakery workshop in the Lomo el Caballo grain store and bread making using a wood burning stove in Las Tosquitas. Directed by the Taucho residents.
- The families of the village and the fiestas commission will decorate the streets

Thursday June 22nd

8pm: Closing ceremony of the XI Taucho Ethnographic days. El Almácigo recreation and cultural centre.

- Talk on “Families from yesteryear and today’s memory of a town”.
With Teresa González Pérez, Professor, University of La Laguna
- Presentation of a documentary by the Adeje Council
The Family in a rural setting

Closing of the XI Taucho Ethnographic days and presentations with Adeje mayor José Miguel Rodríguez Fraga

Musical event with the Imoque Cultural Association

Taicho Fiestas 2017 Programme

Friday June 23

2pm: Clay pigeon shooting in the borough shooting grounds (list closes at 6pm)

6pm: Music (Santi Cano)

8.30pm: Baile de Magos (Trad street dance). Plaza de Taicho

Saturday June 24th

10am: Music (Santi Cano)

11am – 2pm: Children's events with PFAE DINAMIZADEJE: craft workshops, face painting, games, musical shows, with the support of the Adeje council, subvention from the Canarian Employment service and the Social European Fund.

7.30pm: Mass and procession

10pm: Dance with the Tejina and Sensación Gomera orchestras.

Sunday June 25th

11am Music (Santi Cano)

5pm Card and domino tournaments

7pm Mass and procession

9pm Performance by Jóvenes Cantadores

10.30pm: Dance with Toque Latino group

11.30 Presentation of shooting, card and domino trophies and naming of the 2018 Commission volunteers.